Two-Layer Pendant Lamp

"The Two Layer Pendant combines two types of light—directional functional light for the table, and comfortable ambient light —in one lamp. The mouth-blown glass softly diffuses the light, highlighting the material's distinct quality and its small imperfections. The design translates classic Scandinavian principles of good lighting, often the result of several different light sources, capturing that quality in a single refined object."

Description	The Two-Layer Pendant brings new perspectives to the classic glass pendant with its rippled, mouth-blown glass, creating unique optical effects from different angles. This refined design combines clear and frosted glass with a punched steel mesh, providing ample, glare-free light. The blend of glossy and matte finishes creates a harmonious, sculptural form that acts as a self-illuminating sculpture. Perfect for dining settings or above counters, it adds visual intrigue and elegance to any space.
Material	Mouth-blown glass shade, deep drawn and punched metal mesh, spun suspension cap, steel pendant tube. Injection molded diffuser and canopy.
Cleaning & Care	Clean with a moist cloth. If necessary, use a little nonabrasive soap on the cloth.
